

Flying WILD Educator Training & International Migratory Bird Day

Saturday, March 21, 2009 8:30 to 3:00 pm
at the Pequest Trout Hatchery

Flying WILD introduces educators and students to bird conservation through standards-based classroom activities and environmental stewardship projects. Flying WILD encourages schools and communities to implement bird festivals and bird conservation projects. In this six-hour professional development workshop participants receive the Flying WILD activity guide chock full of lesson plans that help get you started towards organizing your own festival with students. Participants will also receive a Project Webfoot Educator Kit, which is a collection of educator and student curriculum materials on wetland conservation.

The workshop will be held at Pequest Trout Hatchery, Saturday, March 21, 2009 from 8:30 to 3:00 pm. To register or for more information, contact Liz Jackson at 908-637-4125 or send email to ejackson@dep.state.nj.us. Bring lunch, binoculars and a bird field guide; and dress for the weather as some activities take place outside. Registration is required. The $10 fee includes morning refreshments.

For more information about Project Webfoot, visit www.ducks.org/Project_Webfoot/ProjectWebfoot/3531/ClassroomMaterials.html

This workshop is sponsored by Ducks Unlimited and NJDEP Division of Fish & Wildlife